Cleanout of craft room-lots of craft magazines

I am having a huge cleanout in my craft room and have found doubles of quite a few quilting and craft magazines.

All of these Magazines have the pattern intact and have not been used. They are in excellent condition...

You can email me if you wish to view the collection that I have for sale. I will give you a link to my google pages where they have a price. If you wish to purchase just email me back with which books you wish to purchase and your location, and I will send you a final total including your postage costs. You may also pick up to save on postage if you locally.
