Denim fabric

I have some pieces of fabric that have been in my sewing room and never used. Some of it is stretch denim in quite a few colours and some non-stretch denim. This fabric was bought for my young teens that are now early older, so is not needed anymore. If you are interested please phone or email me. I will post nationally or you may pick up to save on postage if you are local. There are 8 good sized pieces in total. One of them measures between 2&3mts. Selling the lot for $30.00
